

4 Corners Latinx Leadership Academy 2022-23

You can be part of this Leadership Academy!

Apply Now for the 2022/23 Cohort

The 4 Corners Latinx Leadership Academy is a unique year long 8 session leadership seminar series plus a graduation event (a total of 5 event dates), bringing together the leadership expertise from four ALAS regional affiliates--AZALAS (Arizona), CO-ALAS (Colorado), ALAS de Nuevo Mexico (New Mexico), and ALAS-U (Utah). The Academy seeks to develop Latinx leaders who aspire to move into executive district/organizational leadership, e.g., executive directors, assistant superintendents, chief officers, and others.

4 Corner Latinx Leadership Academy Participants . . .

- Find opportunities to disrupt/address the disparity of Latino/a aspiring leaders to gain support, advocacy, awareness, and leadership components integral to both site and district leadership positions.
- Collaborate with the four corner states to enhance and provide value to aspiring leaders that have aspirations to be leaders at both site and district based positions.
- Learn strategies, systems, structures, and processes needed to work at the executive level.
- Receive mentoring, networking and guidance to connect specifically for leadership within the capacity of our four corner areas.

To be part of Cohort #3 of the Academy, please follow the instructions that follow:

Apply here: <https://forms.gle/2qPqX39oN4L6hVCNA>

Note: For selected participants, there will be a $500 registration fee* (\ Often school and/or district professional learning funds can be used.*)

- Leadership sessions will occur quarterly, one in each region: Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, and Utah. Note: All sessions are planned to be in person. See the CO-ALAS website for tentative dates.
- Commitment: It is expected that selected candidates attend all scheduled sessions, providing their own means of travel. Lodging and meals will be provided at each leadership session. Participants will receive ongoing contact hour credit and copies of materials
